

February 2019

What to expect this Month!

January was a busy month learning all about planets, space, and stars. We helped all the children remember the rules and routines in the classroom after being away for 2 weeks!

In the month of February we will be celebrating Chinese New year by creating our own lanterns and dragons. We are also celebrating the month of LOVE <3 by having Valentine's day parties in the classroom and we do encourage Please make sure to have a card for every student in their class. Class lists will be available beside the sign in sheets to take home We have family day in February, so we thought we would talk about our families again and discuss, where we live and what country we are from.
